

Further, the Rehabilitator is directed to petition all courts and tribunals outside of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for a 180-day stay of all court actions, arbitrations and mediations currently pending against Penn Treaty Network America Insurance Company and American Network Insurance Company until March 19, 2012.

BY THE COURT:

MARY HANNAH LEAVITT, Judge

2. On January 6, 2009, this Court entered Orders appointing the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as Statutory Rehabilitator for PTNA and ANIC.

3. This Court's Order of January 6, 2009 placing PTNA in rehabilitation granted the following 90-day stay of all litigation against PTNA:

12. All court actions, arbitrations and mediations currently or hereafter pending against Penn Treaty in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are stayed for ninety (90) days from the effective date of this Order and such additional time as the Rehabilitator may request, to allow the Rehabilitator an opportunity to review litigation and where appropriate retain new counsel.

13. The Rehabilitator is directed to review all litigation pending outside the courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and petition these other courts or tribunals for a ninety (90) day stay of litigation where necessary to protect the estate of Penn Treaty.

4. This Court's Order of January 6, 2009 placing ANIC in rehabilitation granted the following 90-day stay of all litigation against ANIC:

12. All court actions, arbitrations and mediations currently or hereafter pending against American Network in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are stayed for ninety (90) days from the effective date of this Order and such additional time as the Rehabilitator may request, to allow the Rehabilitator an opportunity to review litigation and where appropriate retain new counsel.

13. The Rehabilitator is directed to review all litigation pending outside the courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and petition these other courts or tribunals for a ninety (90) day stay of litigation where necessary to protect the estate of American Network.

5. By Orders entered April 3, 2009, this Court extended these stays for a period of 180 days, until September 30, 2009.

6. By Orders entered September 30, 2009, this Court extended these stays for an additional period of 180 days, until March 29, 2010.

7. By Orders entered March 22, 2010, this Court extended these stays for an additional period of 180 days, until September 27, 2010.

8. By Order entered September 22, 2010, this Court extended these stays for an additional period of 180 days, until March 28, 2010.

9. By Order entered March 25, 2011, this Court extended these stays for an additional period of 180 days, until September 21, 2011.

10. The stay Orders are consistent with the provisions of Article V of The Insurance Department Act of 1921, Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 789, as amended (the "Act"), and in particular Section 517 (40 P.S. § 221.17).

11. PTNA and its wholly-owned subsidiary ANIC are insolvent in that their liabilities exceed their admitted assets by a very substantial amount.

12. The Rehabilitator accordingly filed Petitions for Liquidation of PTNA and ANIC on October 2, 2009.

13. On March 4, 2010 the Court stayed all action on and consideration of the Petition for Liquidation of PTNA to permit the Rehabilitator and PTNA's parent corporation, Penn Treaty American Corporation ("PTAC"), to work together to explore whether rehabilitation of PTNA is feasible.

14. Following a conference with the Court on May 7, 2010, that stay was lifted and the parties to the liquidation petitions proceeded with discovery on both the PTNA and ANIC liquidation petitions.

15. On August 13, 2010, this Court consolidated the PTNA and ANIC proceedings.

16. Following discovery, the hearing on the Petitions for Liquidation of PTNA and ANIC commenced on January 31, 2011. Nineteen days of testimonial hearings on the Petitions for Liquidation were held through April 12, 2011 and the hearings resumed on September 19, 2011.

17. If litigation against PTNA and ANIC proceeds while the Petitions for Liquidation are pending, it will result in unnecessary expense to PTNA's and ANIC's estates and could result in preferences and unequal treatment of creditors.

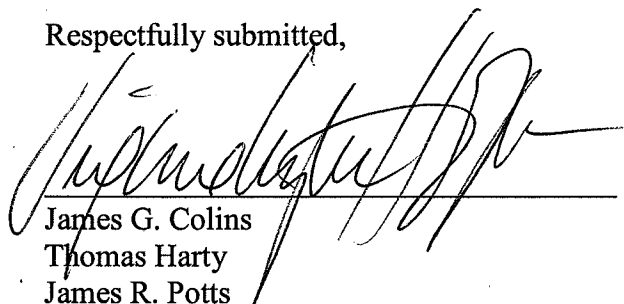

18. In addition to the authorization of stay of litigation provided by Section 517(a) of the Act (40 P.S. § 221.17(a)), Section 505 of the Act (40 P.S. § 221.5) authorizes this Court, upon application of any receiver, to grant "such restraining orders, preliminary and permanent injunctions, and other orders as may be deemed necessary to prevent: . . . (iii) interference with the receiver or with the proceeding; (iv) waste of the insurer's assets; . . . (vi) the institution or further prosecution of any actions or proceedings; (vii) the obtaining of preferences, judgments, attachments, garnishments, or liens against the insurer, its assets or its policyholders; (viii) the levying of execution against the insurer, its assets or policyholders; . . . or (xi) any other threatened or contemplated action that might lessen the value of the insurer's assets or prejudice the rights of policyholders, creditors, or shareholders, or the administration of the proceeding."

19. As of the date of the filing of this motion, there is pending litigation against PTNA in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, Alameda County, California, Charlotte County, Florida, Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, and Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana, including cases which will be placed on the active trial list unless a further stay is issued. In these matters, PTNA is denying payment due to its belief that the policies were obtained through false representations, on the grounds that benefits are being sought which are not covered in the specific policies, on the grounds that the policy benefits have been paid or on the grounds that no payment is due.

20. As of the date of the filing of this motion, there is pending litigation against ANIC in Jefferson Parish, Louisiana. In this matter, ANIC is denying payment due to the fact that the policy is not an ANIC policy.

WHEREFORE, petitioner requests that this Court stay all court actions, arbitrations and mediations currently or hereafter pending against Penn Treaty Network America Insurance Company and American Network Insurance Company in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for an additional period of 180 days and direct the Rehabilitator to petition all courts and tribunals outside of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for a further 180-day stay of all court actions, arbitrations and mediations currently pending against Penn Treaty Network America Insurance Company and American Network Insurance Company.
